

NATURAL HEALTH VS THE TGA

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER JIM SELIM, OWNER OF PAN PHARMACEUTICALS, THE VITAMIN COMPANY THAT WAS CLOSED DOWN BY THE TGA

IN late April 2003, days after the Therapeutic Goods Administration ordered the world's biggest recall of complementary medicines, consumers were busily throwing out their bottles of Pan Pharmaceuticals' vitamins and packets of pain relievers and pharmacists were clearing their shelves. Pan products could not be trusted, the TGA warned; test results had been manipulated and manufacturing processes were not up to scratch.

BUT in August 2008, PAN Pharmaceuticals founder Jim Selim WON THE CASE and sued the Government in the Federal Court, accusing the Therapeutics Goods Administration of abusing its power and waging a personal vendetta against him when it issued an unprecedented mass recall of Pan's products in 2003.
